a collection of photos by icki, the editor of the notorious sty zine. bands, street scenes, and a who'e bunch of other cool shit shot from one of today's most unique and life-affirming photographic perspectives. two-color cover and more pages than you can shake a stick at... particularly that ugly stick yo' ass got beaten with in the first place. $2.00

the long walk nowhere al burian documents his torturous heavy metal years. angst-ridden, smokin' dope out of bent-up soda cans, and fallin' in love only the way heshers can. painfully funny and intriguing. al peels back his scalp and lets you peek inside and see what's going on in there. yet another full-color cover, as well. $2.00

The STORY so far...

they saw each other on the street. their jaws dropped. love at first sight? an attempt at bringing her flowers was blundered by the boy, and the two wound up getting piss-drunk separately. in turn, they both got kicked out of the houses they were crashing at. individually, they hit the road and just missed winding up on the same bus. after the first scheduled break en route, he missed getting back on the bus on time and turned to drink out of frustration. he passed out in the station's bathroom and when he finally came to, he walked straight into her....
